Dear Minister:

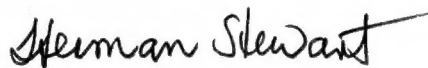

The Jamaican Canadian Association, the largest and longest serving organization within the African Canadian community wishes to congratulate you on your appointment to the Cabinet, and in particular, we are quite pleased with the portfolio you have been given.

The grand opening of our brand new community centre will be taking place on Saturday, August 7 beginning at 6:30 p.m. In attendance will be 700 guests including dignitaries from various levels of government. We are extending an invitation to you to attend this function and to participate in the ribbon cutting and also to bring greetings on behalf of the Government of Canada.

Again, congratulations on your appointment and we look forward to working with you.

Yours truly,

Jamaican Canadian Association

Herman Stewart
President
